Refined K14B VVT petrol engine

The refined K14B VVT engine incorporates new cylinder heads and piston crowns. Also, with friction reduction in each engine component, it delivers great dynamic performance with excellent fuel efficiency.

Rigid and lightweight body

The use of high-tensile steel for the body structure provides excellent strength and chassis rigidity at the same time helps to reduce overall body weight.

Independent Suspension

The suspension designed for Ciaz provides assured handling together with superior ride comfort. It reduces harshness and absorbs shock while driving on bumpy roads.
