3-DOOR

Roads. Who needs them? The Suzuki Grand Vitara 3-door doesn't. Sure, it's the perfect way to get around town or burn up the miles on the motorway. But it's off-road that it really comes into its own. Because this is a real 4x4.

It's versatile, with loads of flexible cargo space, and superbly comfortable, too. Above all, it's fantastically good fun.

In a choice of both estate and soft-top, the Grand Vitara 3-door is equipped with a lively 1.6-litre 16-valve fuel-injected engine, offering the same off-road pedigree you have come to expect from Suzuki.

So if you want to get out of a rut, get into the Grand Vitara 3-door. Experience a real 4x4.

explore the interior

It's below zero. The sleet's turning to snow. The kind of weather that makes you think seriously about emigrating.

Just as well you're driving a Grand Vitara 3-door then. Because whatever it's doing outside, inside all you'll find is space, calm and comfort. A clean, contemporary dash design, stylish fabrics, and reclining rear seats that split 50/50 for easy stowage. Plus, of course, plenty of toys, including electric windows, door mirrors and central locking, and loads of handy storage places.

And when the summer returns, if you have the soft-top, why not drop the top, kick back and savour the unique pleasures of soft-top motoring.

Don't change where you live. Just how.

all taken care of Adventure is all about testing the limits to see what's possible. Turning the question 'Why?' into the challenge, 'Why not?'

But real adventure-seekers take safety seriously.

Rockclimbers love their ropes. Hard-charging downhillers wouldn't be without their crash-helmets and body-armour. And Suzuki owners know that they can take on the most hostile terrain with total confidence, thanks to a host of safety features.

Driver and front passenger airbags, side-impact protection beams, front seatbelt pre-tensioners and a collapsible steering column are all fitted as standard.

Powerful front disc brakes, multi-reflector halogen headlamps with electric height adjustment and a high-mounted stop light help make the road a safer place for you - and your fellow drivers. The high driving position and superb all-round visibility let you see trouble coming - and stay out of it in the first place.

Take your opportunities. Not chances.
