For '59, Chrysler unveils a smart new concept in automotive interiors. You see it here—double-woven "Mayfair" cloth, especially created for the Saratoga. Soft to the touch, wear-resistant, this buoyant design is but one of eight combinations you may match to your individual good taste.

Power and grace are everywhere evident in the brilliant new Chrysler Saratoga. Even going away, the car has a fleet, taut, poised appearance that is newly accented this year by the broad sweep of its rear deck, the smooth rise of its rear fenders.

The CHRYSLER Golden Lion V-8 engine with Push-button Torque-Flite

Out of a pioneering past lined with engineering "firsts" comes the smoothest, quietest, most rugged V-8 in Chrysler history! With most torque-per-pound . . . most power-per-pound in its price class, this matchless power plant responds effortlessly to the slightest touch of your toe. It's performance with a fuel-saving pedigree, too! For Chrysler defeated all "comers"—even the lightest "sixes"—during the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. More rigid block, high compression ratios, greater breathing efficiency of this engine combine with more economical Push-button Torque-Flite for smoother, carefree motoring!

DEEPER BLOCK DESIGN: means Golden Lion V-8 moving parts are enclosed by a more rigid structure that promotes smoothness.
