

Dance to a different beat...

...every day!

The delightfully cute baby of the Citroën family - the stylish Citroën C1 - just got a little bit noisier!

It's the new Citroën C1 Airplay special edition and it comes with a free iPod® nano and docking station - giving you total plug-and-play control and mobility and making it THE compact city car to be seen and heard in.

Both 3 and 5-door designs share several external features - fluid lines, wraparound bumpers, rounded corners and high-positioned lamps. It's a unique, modern look - and one that's sure to catch the eye, especially in Scarlet Red or Caldera Black!

Inside, the surprisingly roomy interior, which will easily accommodate you and up to three passengers, is stylishly completed with body colour co-ordinated high gloss trim inserts giving Airplay a personality all its own.

Sounds like a good idea?

The Citroën C1 Airplay has a 1.0i petrol engine for genuine city nippiness and agility combined with incredible economy and some of the lowest emissions on the road, while it's externally petite size ensures that parking is plain sailing.

And C1 Airplay can be relied on for safety too. Variable power steering and a braking system that features ABS with Electronic Brakeforce Distribution (EBD) all mean that, when you stop, you can brake with confidence. Add in the Cornering Stability Control (CSC) and it's hardly surprising that the Citroën C1, with its 4-star EURO NCAP rating and incredible occupant protection, is one of the best in its class.

Affordable, economical and a safe investment all round - it really does sound like a good idea!
