Fiesta Festival

FIESTA

A bright newcomer.

■ Instrument panel features include a 'lights on' warning that avoids the risk of returning to a flat battery. Switches are easy to see, identify and operate.

■ Sandford patterned cloth is the trim for the seats and door inserts.

Ford's award-winning Fiesta was Britain's best-selling small hatchback in 1986. The range is now made even more attractive by the Fiesta Festival, a stylish newcomer packed with value-for-money features that range from metallic paint — at no extra cost — to velour carpet and a sunroof.

The Fiesta Festival's key features include:

- Lively 1.1-litre engine combines performance with reliability. Choice of four-speed or five-speed gearbox.
- Choice of five body colours, including Azure Blue and Tropic Turquoise metallics at no extra cost.
- Full wheel covers look good and are easy to clean.
- Remote control door mirrors.
- Tailgate with wash/wipe and convenient 'turnlock' release catch.
- Velour carpet.
- Seats trimmed with unique Sandford cloth — front pair have padded, fully adjustable head restraints.
- Large stowage pockets on back of front seats, plus additional under-floor space in boot.
- Both sun visors equipped with vanity mirrors.

- Tilting/removable glass sunroof.
- Push-button MW/LW radio.

■ Azure Blue metallic paint, available at no extra cost, complements the new Fiesta Festival's smart, efficient styling. Value-for-money equipment includes a sunroof.

■ The Fiesta Festival's remarkably spacious interior features seats trimmed with Sandford cloth and carefully shaped for long-distance comfort. Fully adjustable head restraints are standard.
